

National Training for Counselors and Mentors

Funding Education
Beyond High School

Academic Year
2017–2018

Conclusion

Conclusion

- Insert Module Name
- Insert Module Name
- Insert Module Name
- Insert Module Name
- Insert Module Name
- Insert Module Name
- Resources

Resources

Counselor resources can be found at the following link on the financial aid toolkit website:

- financialaidtoolkit.ed.gov/trainers

Scroll down the “NT4CM Training Materials” and click on the link

Federal Resources

- Websites
 - www.studentaid.gov
 - www.fafsa.gov
 - www.financialaidtoolkit.ed.gov
 - <http://fafsademotest.ed.gov>
- Social Media (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube)
- Federal Student Aid Information Center (FSAIC)
 - 1.800.4.FED.AID (1.800.433.3243)
 - 1.800.730.89139 (TTY)

Miscellaneous Resources

- Review this section for a variety of websites that contain financial aid resource information for counselors as you assist students and parents
- Features NASFAA, “Ask an Advisor,” and a site that translates English financial aid terms into Spanish

E-mail Communications

- E-mails to counselors based on annual financial aid cycle
- NT4CM will either e-mail you or your state coordinator, who will forward messages
- Questions? Contact state coordinator or e-mail nt4cm@ed.gov, which is strictly for counselors and mentors
- If parents and/or students have questions, they should contact 1-800-4-FED-AID

Thank You

- We know how important you are to students and their families, and we thank you for everything you do!

Evaluations

- Please take time to complete an evaluation
- We will use your comments and suggestions to improve future training and outreach efforts

Final Items

- Certificate of completion

Questions/Discussion

National Training for Counselors and Mentors

Funding Education Beyond High School | Academic Year 2017-2018

Provided by:

Federal Student Aid

AN OFFICE of the
U.S. DEPARTMENT of EDUCATION

PROUD SPONSOR of the AMERICAN MIND®

